Regional Champions Lady Indians

The Road To A Championship

Part 1: Lady Indians Basketball Regional Champions

By John Bankel

There is an old saying, albeit not heard much anymore, yet nonetheless still true: "Champions are made; not born." Many a gifted athlete has been born that never became a champion. The halls are full of them. By the same token, many an "average" athlete, through dedication, perseverance and plain old "hard work," the blood, sweat and tears kind, has risen to the top of the heap in their sport. The Lady Indians basketball team recently captured the Regional Championship. With grit and determination and a spark provided by Sophomore Piper Blackburn, the Lady Indians showed a bigger Wagoner squad the door by winning a nail biter, 45-44. What made this win especially sweet was that 12 days earlier, Wagoner had taken Stilwell to task on their home turf. Payback is always sweeter when a championship is on the line. After stand-out point guard Senior Snowda Watie fouled out with 3:30 left in the game, the Ladies remained unruffled and continued to exercise their game plan, relentless pursuit of the ball, to perfection. It was when Wagoner committed its fifth foul in the fourth, that the Lady Indians took advantage at the foul line. With the score tied at 38, it was the foul shooting that paved the way to victory. When Senior Sloan Sweeney calmly sank two to make the score 45-41 with 4.3 seconds on the clock, the thrill of victory could be felt. As the buzzer sounded and the 45 foot heave by the Lady Bulldogs rippled the net, the scoreboard read: Stilwell 45 Wagoner 44. The road now leads to the Area competition where the Lady Indians will face the number one Class 4A team in the state, the Bethany Lady Bronchos, who won their Regional by lopsided scores and now come in with a 22-4 record. Stilwell is 21-5. The Lady Indians will face their toughest challenge on their road to a championship. The game is Friday, March 1 at 6 pm at the Mvskoke Dome in Okmulgee. Come on out!

Part 2: The Lady Indian Wrestlers

Fifty-five Oklahoma High Schools competed for individual and team tournament girls wrestling championships over the past weekend. Stilwell had two wrestlers who had qualified for the state tournament: Junior Joseline Blevins at 120 lbs and Junior Adrianna Chronnister, wrestling at 135 lbs. Both girls had recently achieved a remarkable milestone in their high school careers. Blevins had reached 100 career wins with Chronnister notching 88 victories. Both added to that total during their state competition since both had reached the finals where the Gold and Silver medals were up for grabs. Blevins, winning by Fall, took home the Gold. Joseline is the first Lady Indian wrestler to earn a State Championship. Chronnister, who wrestled well yet came up short, took home a Silver medal. As a two person team, the team points that these outstanding athletes earned, put the Lady Indians in 5th place! Out of 55 schools! Ain't that something? Champions are made, not born. The season that these two had will go a long way to marking the road for another run at a state championship in 2025. Congratulations Ladies on your accomplishments!

Part 3: Stilwell Indians Boys Basketball

After dispatching Stigler in the opening round of the Regional tournament at Stilwell on Thursday, March 22, 61-49 behind Keller Hitcher's 22 points, the third ranked North Rock Creek High School Cougars stood in the way of a Stilwell sweep of Regional Championships. On March 24 at the Stilwell High School Sports Arena, the Indians quickly found out what they were up against. With the Cougars' superior 3 point shooting, an opportunistic defense and numerous Indian offensive cold spells, Stilwell found itself behind by 11 points midway in the 3rd quarter. A spark was needed. In came Juan Martinez. He wasted no time in draining a 3 pointer. The Cougars came up empty in their possession. Keller Hitcher nailed a follow-up 3 pointer, trimming the lead to 5. The Cougars responded with a 17-0 run to put no doubt on the outcome. With the final score of 60-46, the Indians moved to 21-5 on the season and will now play in the consolation bracket Thursday at 2:30 at the Mvskoke Dome in Okmulgee where they will face Bethany, a team that the Indians defeated in 5 over times in the Lincoln Christian Tournament. Their road to the championship just got harder. Yet, it is still one game at a time.

WHAT'S SO PUNNY? PUN FUN

To all the punsters in PUN FUN land, Greetings! Time to get your funny bone jostled, your ribs tickled and get some good knee slapping in to boot. You will find these puns to be just what you are looking for: a real hooty hoot hoot! A gag is a gag but somebody should have gagged the ones who wrote the following actual newspaper headlines.

1. Ahoy Mate: Panda Mating Fails; Veterenarian Takes Over
2. We Meet At Last: Two Sisters Reuntied After 18 Years In Checkout Counter
3. Get A Lard Of This: New Study of Obesity Looks for Larger Test Group
4. Only Half The Story: Local High School Dropouts Cut In Half
5. It Was A Gas Gas Gas: Gas Cloud Clears Out Taco Bell
6. Goin' To Kentucky? Fried Chicken Cooked In Microwave Wins Trip

Mistakes are a part of life; when they appear in Newspaper headlines we call them "Bloopers." Makes one wonder if the editor fell asleep at the switch or just had a zany sense of humor for the readers' enjoyment? There you have it! Six of one or half dozen of another should do it until the next PUN FUN!

Into the Hills

By Donna Boecher

June 1868

I was sittin' under Mabel with both hands on her teats when Bart came home. He'd slipped silently into the open door of the barn and laid his hand on Mabel's hip. She'd tried to move, but the "kickers" on her hind legs held her rooted in place. His first words, "Martha I'm so glad you're here helping out Maw and Paw." "I'm glad to help." What opening words! Couldn't I have said something more grown up! I felt like I was still nine years old. Clearing my throat, I tried again. "Maw and I are in a tough situation. Thankfully, your parents are using me for the milking." That was better. Now I sounded like an adult. Young women my age in the hills usually didn't marry until twenty UNLESS there was necessity - poverty or "in the family way." Well, we were at the top of the poverty list. Finishing the milking, Bart took the now heavy milk bucket and walked-it into his parents' back porch. She'd pour it into several Mason jars until the cream rose to the top. Mason jars had been around before the War, but Maw hadn't had money to purchase any. Metal buckets had worked. Jars filled, Martha said good-bye to the family; skipping down the steps and quickly disappearing into the woods toward home. What a day! Blessed again.

Episode 4 of 8

Hello all you Krypto fans! This Kontest is now at its halfway point. Woods Weighs in on Friday's Remarks

OKLAHOMA CITY - Sen. Tom Woods, R-Westville, released the following statement about comments he made at a town hall meeting on Friday.

"Firstly, I want to say that a child losing their life is horrible. They were a victim of bullying and that is never okay. It is always a tragedy when someone loses their life. I said that Friday and I mean that still today. I hope anyone struggling in a similar position gets the help they need as soon as possible.

"I also want to say that I stand behind what I believe in. The groups and individuals who push gender reassignment on children in our schools, and anyone else who is trying to normalize behavior that shouldn't be tolerated, is unacceptable in my mind.

"This is an agenda that is being forced on Oklahoma kids. My voting record speaks for itself. I supported legislation to keep men out of women's sports and to protect children from being mutilated by transition surgery before they can make an informed decision.

"I will continue to push for a day when kids can be kids again and be free from the pressure of conforming to radical ideologies."

Dear John,

My husband and I live in the country very close to a major highway. We have always dealt with people needing help on the road, anything from accidents, vehicle breakdown, to running out of gas. We never thought much about helping people until the last few months. Now we have a dramatic increase in people needing help. They want gas, diesel, rides to other towns, food, and money. More alarming is the fact that they do not speak English. They communicate with us using their smartphone to interpret what they want. We have always helped people when we can, but this increased traffic of people seems to be a targeted event. They are very pushy and insistent that we help them. I have always believed that we should help those in need, but this is different. I feel threatened on my own property. I called the sheriff and they suggested we just ask them to leave, but they cannot do anything because there is no crime. What can we do?

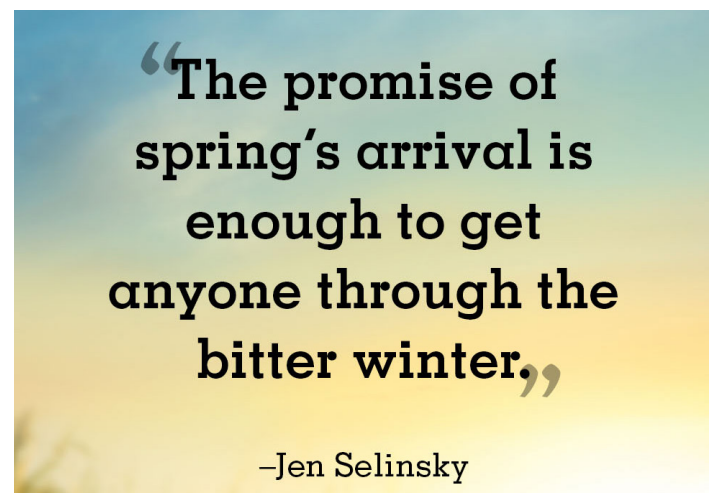

Just Say No ?

Dear Just Say No...with the current rampant influx of unvetted foreigners, discretion is needed more than ever when encountering a stranger at your door. A charitable heart can be stretched thin to the breaking point. Many help-seekers today are playing the reckless abandonment of the federal government's laws for all that it is worth. They have been given licenses of entitlement and have become pushy in the process. The best thing one can do is to firmly let the help-seeker know that you cannot help them. Just say no! and send them on their way.

Sincerely,

Dear John

THE CONSERVATIVE VIEW

By Russell Turner

A TIME FOR A DIVORCE

It is always sad when a couple reaches a point in their lives where there seems to be no other alternative than a divorce. There can be many reasons for separating, but the biggest cause is the changing of attitudes. When one or both partners start thinking in opposite directions it is not long until something must give, usually the marriage ends in divorce. While we think of divorce being between two people, it can also apply to our nation as well.

Like many other conservative citizens across our nation, I was appalled by the court decision in New York concerning President Donald Trump. What we are seeing is the complete corruption of our judicial system; instead of a system of justice, the New York system is no better than a system you would find in some third-world dictatorship. There have been several instances where foreign companies would go into some country and enter into a contract with that government to build an industry, only to have a political power change in that country and have all their assets nationalized. In the case of Trump there was no victim; all the lenders to the Trump organization were paid in full and were ready to do more business with the Trump organization, but on the whim of a liberal judge he was fined and penalized for doing nothing wrong.

If I were a businessman in New York I would get my assets out of that state and city and I would not let the door hit me in the rear while I was leaving. What we witnessed in Judge Engoron's court would have made Joe Stalin cheer. When I look at New York, I will always look at it the same way I look at some communist country. I can remember when we Americans shared a belief in justice and the rule of law; I am sure that there have always been those who secretly had other beliefs, but they tried to conceal it, but in today's world that garbage is in open view for all to see. Instead of putting our faith in God, we have those who openly worship at the altar of big government and doing what will gain the most political power. One of the greatest strengths of our nation was having a common set of values and the will to defend each other; from what I witness in New York if that city was invaded, I would be reluctant to do anything to protect or help them. Our once-great city has become nothing but a cesspool of crime and liberal ideology.

The elites of New York are so full of themselves that they cannot see how close they are to driving this nation to the point of a civil war; already many wealthy people are cutting ties with that city, there is currently a "truckers" strike underway because they are outraged by the injustice against Trump. The average working person in this nation is not stupid, and we are getting tired of the corruption of our system of justice and law. While I am not a fan of divorce, I do realize that when a man and woman get to a point where they are completely diametrically opposed in their views, divorce can become the only option. Maybe it would be good if we Americans could divorce New York and let them become their own country, and let them create their liberal utopia without the help of us conservatives.

"Dick" Wilson

Feb. 3, 1942 — Feb. 25, 2024

Audrey "Dick" Leonard Wilson, born on February 3, 1942, in Stilwell, Oklahoma to Leonard and Mable (Cole) Wilson; was a remarkable individual who touched the lives of many. Dick led a life filled with love and cherished moments.

Dick was known for being a great husband, father, and grandfather. He had a diverse range of interests, and a mischievous side to him which shone through as he loved to pester people in good humor. He loved operating tractors, and backhoes, going for leisurely drives, and most importantly, spending quality time with his family, especially the grandchildren.

Dick is now reunited in heaven with his parents Leonard and Mable, brothers Dale, Don, and Darrell Wilson; sisters Connie Wilson and Juanita Hays; as well as his great grandson and great-great grandson.

On February 25, 2024, Dick passed away, leaving behind a legacy that will be cherished forever. His passing has deeply grieved his surviving family members including his beloved wife Oleta and their five children: Charlie Wilson, Woodrow Wilson, Butch Wilson, Reené Arnold and husband Larry, and Becky Wilson-Collins, sister Sheila Buckner, and brothers Ronnie and wife Helen Wilson, Larry Wilson, and Doyle and wife Sue Wilson. Additionally, he is survived by 17 grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren and one great-great granddaughter along with numerous nieces, nephews, and friends.

With heavy hearts but also grateful for having shared in the life of such a remarkable individual, we bid farewell to Audrey "Dick" Leonard Wilson. May his legacy of love and joy live on in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know him.

ON THE CAMPAIGN TRAIL
COMMENTARY BY JOHN BANKEL
Today's Trail Treks To.....
The Memory Bank: Not For 55 and Older Only

If you think you are suffering from memory loss, French Professor Bruno DuBois, Director of the Institute of Memory and Alzheimer's Disease (MMA), has a reassuring take on the subject. The Professor says, "If anyone is aware of their memory problems, they do not have Alzheimer's." For example: they forget the names of family members or they forget where they put things. It often happens in people 60 or older, yet it can happen to anyone. This is temporary forgetfulness. Half of people 60 or older have some of these symptoms that are due to age rather than disease. Many people are concerned about these oversights; hence, the importance of the following statements from the Professor:

1. "Those who are conscious of being forgetful, have no serious memory problem."
2. "Those who suffer from a memory illness or Alzheimer's are not aware of what is happening." (Joe Biden anyone?) Professor Bruno DuBois, Director of MMA, reassures the majority of people concerned about their oversights when he says, "The more we complain about memory loss, the less likely we are to suffer from memory loss sickness." That is all for today. Now where did I put my keys?

Today's Trail has come to an end. Perhaps we will meet again around the bend, my friend. Meanwhile, may your Trail end up on the right side of the fence. Happy Trails to you!

Bullard comments on elimination of state grocery tax
 OKLAHOMA CITY – Sen. David Bullard, R-Durant, released the following statement after the Senate approved eliminating the state portion of the grocery tax Thursday.

"It was an honor to carry and coauthor a bill to bring tax relief to Oklahomans. The Senate voted to cut the state portion of the grocery tax where so many Oklahomans have been hit hard with Biden's reckless inflation. It is important to understand that governments don't have revenue problems, they have spending problems and the taxpayers suffer the most. Today we did what is best for the people of Oklahoma."
