Republicans Sweep Local Elections

Charles Boecher and wife Tarra are all smiles after Boecher wins District 1 Commissioner race.

Adair County has a new County Assessor with Teresa Turner emerging as the winner in a tight contest over incumbent Democrat Teresa "Tracy" Sims. In an even tighter race, Republican Charles Boecher prevailed by a mere 17 votes over Democrat Chris Bruner in the District 1 Commissioner's contest.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross Country is a Fall sport. For various reasons it does not get the coverage that Football gets, yet the cross country runners are just as much athletes as any other sport and they deserve recognition. Indeed, this year's

Stilwell Lady Indians squad performed exceedingly well, placing 16th overall at the State meet in Shawnee on October 26 and, not only that, they were named Class 4A ACADEMIC STATE CHAMPIONS! Con-

Poteau Pirates Too Much For Indians

Because of storm warnings for Friday, Nov. 4, the scheduled game between Stilwell and Poteau was moved to Thursday, Nov. 3. The change most likely did not affect the outcome of the final regular season game for both teams. For the Indians to take on the always powerful Poteau Pirates, finishing the season with a win would have been an astounding achievement. Stilwell came in with a 5-4 record, while Poteau sported a stellar 8-1 mark along with a #3 state Class 4A ranking. Their only loss came at the hands of the Broken Bow Savages. Indeed, the Indians played Broken Bow tough just the week before where, had it not been for a penalty plague, could have beaten the Savages. However, this night at Poteau, the Indians were severely outgunned as they absorbed a lopsided 49-0 loss. Stilwell finished with a 5-5 record, which, compared to the previous 3 seasons, is a remarkable improvement. In District play, the Indians manged a 3-4 mark, which was not enough to send them into post-season action. The boys provided their fans with plenty of exciting moments the highlight of which was the memorable overtime victory against Madill. Thek 2022 season can perhaps best be characterized as a building block to what the future of Stilwell Football may hold. Meanwhile, thanks to all the players, the coaches and the fans for the entertainment. Stiwell is proud of its 2022 Stilwell Indians!

[[There is] therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

MOMENTS WITH MARIE

By Donna Boecher

Serial No. 12

Rachael went back to the women's shelter; she just had to lay down. The startling facts about Rachael Anne's murder were stressful and emotionally draining. She needed to talk to Michael and Marie. They were family. Visually, the gray of their hair spoke of wisdom and peace. She took a breath. Nap first, then she'd knock on their door. She'd pour out what Arturo Chavez had told her. She didn't have a shift at the restaurant tonight. On a positive note, Michael had been checking up on the police through his New Mexico connections.

The police were straight, but much like WW2 times loose lips within the department were allowing illegal aliens to slip across the Mexico - New Mexico border undetected. Michael was beginning to think Rachael Anne had seen a Coyote bringing Mexicans and possibly Middle Easterners into the United States. Marie and Michael might need to stake out the area for a few nights. Heaven help them because Marie didn't like snakes or other reptiles that came alive in the cooling air of dusk. For now, he was dwelling on the positives he had heard. The police were trustworthy!

Dear John,

I saved everything my children ever did in school, sports, vacations, Sunday school, and graduations. Pictures they colored, report cards, and all the memorabilia I could collect. Each one of my children have their own storage tubs full of things I considered to be priceless treasures. They have grown up and have families of their own. I retired this year and need to move into a smaller house. My dilemma is that my children are not interested in having their tubs full of memories. I'm very hurt that they are rejecting these things. I can't just toss these things out. Should I stay in this big house and keep everything? What do you think?

Mommy Hoarder

Dear Mommy Hoarder... hoarding can be a disease that is not easily cured, mostly because there is always something to hoard. As a matter of fact, Murphy's Law says: "The more you try to throw away, the more there is left to keep." The other truth is: When we are gone, there is nothing for us to carry on. On the bright side, it just may come to pass when you go, your children may come to realize that at least some of the things you "hoarded" can awaken a tinge of nostalgia and prompt them to do some of their own hoarding of your stuff. Time will tell. Meanwhile begin thinning out your "hoard."

Sincerely,
John Bankel

WHAT'S SO PUNNY?

Pun Fun

What is a PUN? A pun, also known as paronomasia, is a form of word play. As a plural noun, puns are a joke exploiting the different possible meanings of a word or the fact that there are words which sound alike but have different meanings. For example: "The pigs were a squeal." (if you will forgive the pun). As a verb, puns make a joke exploiting the different possible meanings of a word. For example: His first puzzle punned on composers, with answers like, "Handel with care." and "Haydn go seek."

The origin of the word "pun?" Mid 17th century: perhaps an abbreviation of obsolete "pundigrion," as a

from Larkin.....

Health tips from Larkin: Bach flowers: Part 13: Gentian: This Bach Flower Essence brings a return to faith - not only faith in God and the Higher Self, but faith in the meaning of life, and faith in one's own future. People who live in the negative Gentian state are eternal pessimists, always depressed and always seeing what could go wrong for themselves, for their families, and for society as a whole. They doubt the messages from their higher selves, as they doubt everything and everyone else around them. Those who live with such a person often feel that they are taking enjoyment from their own depression and pessimism. At its extreme, this personality doesn't feel comfortable unless it is engaged in worry over something. Interestingly, even when working with Bach Flower Remedies, the Gentian personality will harbor a seed of doubt about their effectiveness - in spite of seeing the positive results. The true Gentian personality will always be a skeptic, but fanciful alteration of "punctilio." "Punctilio" means "a fine or petty point of conduct or procedure." Go figure? And now for a pun or two or three...

Are you a pun lover? Here are some groan-worthy puns about loving puns...

Groaner #1: Saying I love puns would be a true pun-derstatement.

Groaner #2: I suppose you could say I have a pun-chant for wordplay.

Groaner #3: Someday, when I am a pun-shioner, I would love to live in a pn-thouse on a pun-insula.

Groan no more for that is it for today. More PUN FUN coming your way!

after treatment will become a "Positive skeptic," able to see difficulties without falling into despair, and able to live with conflict because they can once again see a positive outcome at the end. A temporary Gentian state can come about as a result of extreme circumstances. These might include a lingering illness, a prolonged period of unemployment, or the death of a loved family member, friend, or pet. Children caught between warring parents in a divorce often fall into the Gentian state, as do elderly people who are forced to leave their homes for life in a facility. Children who often have trouble in school and wish desperately not to be forced to return are exhibiting the temporary Gentian state - Wise parents should keep Bach Flower Remedies on hand to help them when those situations occur. Gentian is the Bach Flower Essence to choose when psychotherapy is having no effect. Larkin Fouse is a certified holistic health practitioner, operator and owner of Crescent Clinic in Stilwell.

THE NEXT CAMPAIGN

The midterm campaigns are quickly becoming history; but being involved in politics for many years, the campaigns really never stop. I have noticed that all of the races will be won or lost by the thinnest of margins. When I see people such as Joe Biden occupy the highest office in the country, I have to remind myself that even with all of the alleged crooked vote-getting, a lot of people supported him and still do to this day. The history revisionists would like all Americans to forget the principles that our country was founded upon. Our country was founded upon the Judao-Christian belief system. At one time our country was a solid Christian nation, and it is my belief that was the major factor in this nation becoming a superpower. We Americans have forgotten, or ignored, the fact that there are powers seen and unseen that are intent upon destroying our way of life and our nation. It is so ironic that people professing the Christian faith are demonized and singled out as being domestic terrorists. Often times we Christians are banned from social media platforms and even come under physical attack.

We have many people elected to public office that are nothing but agitators who stir up hatred between different segments of our population for political brinkmanship. They will focus upon bad things that were done centuries ago; granted, there were many things done in the past in our own country, but those kinds of actions were not limited just to our country. Throughout history it has been a part of human nature to be cruel to our fellow man. We need to remind ourselves of a simple fact, the true Christians were not the ones committing those atrocities. We have a huge number of people that like to wave their flag of Christianity who are nothing but hypocrites. Even in the holy Bible this behavior was addressed by Jesus Christ. When men came to him and bragged of their faith, Christ saw through their hypocrisy and told them to depart and he never knew them. We Americans have turned away from our faith, which was our source of power. Because of our freedom we embrace all kinds of perversion; we allow it to be taught in our schools along with critical race theory and endless indoctrination. We have allowed our nuclear family structure to be weakened to the point of collapse. Too many of our politicians no longer believe in the rule of law.

The biggest campaign we must do is to boldly proclaim the virtues that our founders built into our government. We Americans do not need to place our faith in government and the politicians that are nothing but a bunch of individuals that seek power at any cost. I write about the problems our country faces every week in my columns, all of those problems would simply go away if we would only get our heads out of the sand and return to the belief system that made our country great in the first place. Sadly, the biggest obstacle we face is a liberal, biased news media that does not share our beliefs. We all campaign for candidates that we believe in, it is time that we start devoting the same drive to campaign for our true source of power.

ON THE CAMPAIGN TRAIL

COMMENTARY BY JOHN BANKEL

Today's Trail Treks To.. Tedious Campaigning

Political campaigns seem like they will never end. In a way that is true. Depending on the office, the length of a campaign can produce a ton of tedium for all concerned. The amount of money spent on some of these high profile offices that produce an avalanche of ads is mind boggling. Voters can hardly make up their minds while trying to figure out who is telling the truth and who is not. In the end, when the election is over, there will be a winner and a loser. In today's political environment, the aftermath can be totally unnerving when the loser will not concede and end up challenging the vote count. The Biden regime is slated for a wipeout and, if that comes to pass, there will be much acrimony from the sniveling liberal left and perhaps an outpouring of violence from malignant radical groups such as antifa and blm. Perhaps a little reform is in order? One idea is to shorten the amount of time for campaigning. Perhaps 3 weeks would do the trick. If candidates cannot get their message across within 3 weeks, they probably haven't got their acts together. The voters would be spared the tiresome barrages of rhetoric especially "ad nauseum" pleas for donations. "Cutting the mustard" under this plan would compel candidates to put it all on the table in a cohesive, concise and convincing fashion which would minimize voter confusion.

Imagine that? In Stilwell, the time period between filing for candidacy for city offices and the election is just about 3 weeks long. No time to tarry. That works for all concerned. As Larry The Cable guy so famously said, "Get'er done."

Today's Trail has come to an end. Perhaps we will meet again around the bend my friend. May your Trail end up on the right side of the fence.

Mullin It Over: Lowering the Cost of Living

By Congressman Markwayne Mullin

One-party Democrat rule in Washington is proving too costly for Americans. In Oklahoma, inflation is 14.7 percent, costing the average family an additional $592 per month.

Under President Donald Trump, we had the most robust economy our country has seen in decades. Now, that progress is coming undone in the name of passing a radical, socialist agenda.

So far, the economic track record under President Biden is shameful. Total government spending has increased by over $9 trillion since February 2021. Year-over-year food prices have skyrocketed up 13.5 percent, the most significant increase ever. The Inflation Expansion Act included $70 billion in tax increases on small businesses and Americans making less than $200,000. Over 43 percent of Americans have had to prematurely dip into their retirement savings to make ends meet. Families see higher prices for gas, food, and other everyday items.

When former President Ronald Reagan took office on January 20, 1981, the United States was experiencing some of the worst economic times since the Great Depression.

Taxes were high, unemployment numbers were up, and interest rates had soared. President Reagan effectively unified the country through "Reaganomics," a plan that created over 20 million jobs and lowered inflation from 13.5 percent to 4.1 percent. Plus, the net worth of families earning between $20,000 and $50,000 grew by 27 percent annually.

President Reagan knew that to reboot the economy, his Administration had to lower taxes and level the playing field. As a result, his economic policies were key to bringing the longest peacetime economic expansion in our country's history.

In his Inaugural Address, Reagan said, "Putting America back to work means putting all Americans back to work. Ending inflation means freeing all Americans from the terror of runaway living costs. All must share in the productive work of this 'new beginning,' and all must share in the bounty of a revived economy."

These words are still true today. We all know that it's not the wealthy who will pay the price for Joe Biden's reckless policies. It's every American family.

ADAIR COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

FINAL GAMES OF 2022 SEASON

Commentary by John Bankel

Westville Yellowjackets

On Friday, November 4, The Yellowjackets traveled to Kansas, OK, and took on the Kansas Comets for their final game of the year. Westville came in at 3-6 on the season. They got on the bus back to home with a 3-7 final seasonal tally, as the Comets swamped the Yellowjackets with 63 points to Westville's 38. The 2022 season has come to an end and, while the record is disappointing, Westville can be proud of their team for having given them some exciting moments. It is what high school football is all about.

Watts Engineers

For the 4-5 Engineers final game of the 2022 season, they traveled to take on the Wilson Henryetta High School Mustangs in an 8 man football contest. The Mustangs trampled the Engineers with 54 points to finish the season with an 8-1 record. Watts managed to score 22 and finished the season with a 4-6 record. Watts started out at 4-1, but lost their next 5 games. One cannot overlook the 4 victories which provided the fans with lots of excitement.

Cave Springs Hornets

On Thursday, Nov. 3, the Hornets traveled to Foyil to tangle with the Foyil High School Panthers in an 8 man football contest. Both teams came into the game with identical 1-8 records. The Hornets swarmed all over the Panthers, putting up 42 points. Foyil managed 14. Cave Springs finished the 2022 season with a 2-8 record. It is always a plus when a team finishes the season with a win. A victory to be celebrated and remembered.

Stay tuned and see what the 2023 season will bring? Adair County High School football is here to stay. Plan on supporting your local team next year.

MEMORIES OF FARM AND FAMILY

By Donna Boecher

I had chores at Granny's – daily and weekly. WASH DAY MONDAY was unique; I got to put "bluing" in the rinse water of a #3 Zinc wash tub. The back porch was rearranged to allow for the washing machine and two zinc tubs on a long waist-high work table in the screened porch. Before milking, Granny would start a dried corn cob fire under her water-filled big black cast iron kettle and topped with lye soap chips. Fresh milk processed and refrigerated, she put hot buckets of lye water into the washer. The clothes agitated 15 or 20 minutes and then were wrung through a rubber roller into clear water and then through the bluing. The dirtiest clothing was washed last. As I learned, she let me use the wringer, and then take pans of wet clothes to pin on the plastic-coated wire west of the house. There was order to "pinning." Waistbands were pinned since they were heavy. Before the waning sun could dampen the clothes, I took down the clothes - collecting the pins in a bag. In the house, the final steps began. Everything was ironed and folded except the bath towels. "Why?" you ask. Well, the roughness was good for your skin. Granny knew those things and I followed her instructions. Grannies do know best!
